AIG Awards Larry Macy with the Platinum Advisor 2016 Award Independent Financial Advisor Recognized for Top Achievement

MCKINNEY, Texas -- The key to Larry Macy's success is his holistic, client centric approach, focusing on the client's needs, their goals, and their future. As a wealth management expert, Larry customizes a strategic plan that provides clarity and a step-by-step process towards meeting each of his client's personal financial goals.

He takes very seriously the understanding that his financial expertise assists the client in ultimately achieving their life dreams, financial freedom, retiring, traveling, spending more time with their family, or whatever their goals may be.

Steve Arroyo, Divisional Vice President of AIG, presented the Platinum Advisor 2016 Award* to Larry Macy, as one of AIG's exclusive top producers.

"I am grateful to be recognized. The acknowledgment is exceedingly rewarding. What is most fulfilling to me is the opportunity to work with so many exceptional people toward reaching their financial goals. I greatly value each and every relationship," states Larry Macy.

Establishing Macy Wealth Management on the highest standard of integrity, honesty, and transparency, Larry works hand-in-hand with his clients to meet their strategic goals. As he works with his clients, Larry's objective is to earn his clients' trust for their financial futures; a goal he takes very seriously.

Macy Wealth Management continually delivers service and value to the client with consistent communication that is personal, professional, and open. The AIG Platinum Advisor 2016 Award acknowledges Larry Macy's principles to be the client's trusted advisor, as he invests in their future.
